Two Youths Die Instantly In Crash On Biloxi Bridge

1-12-45
Two Pascagoula teenage youths were instantly killed Tuesday night on the Biloxi Ocean Springs bridge when the motorcycle on which they were returning home and an automobile traveling in the opposite direction had a head-on collision.

They were Kenneth Borries, 17 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Borries Sr., and Glendel Adams, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Adams Sr.

The boys had been to Biloxi, it was understood, to visit a girl of young Borries' acquaintance. The accident occurred about 9:15 p.m. Borries was operating the motorcycle.

Alton Nettles, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nettles of Biloxi, was the driver of the automobile involved in the crash. He and his companion, 15-year-old Clarence Blanchard, son of Mrs. Ceilina Blanchard of Biloxi, were returning from the picture show in Ocean Springs.

Young Nettles told investigating officers that he was "not sure whether the left front light was burning" as he had been having trouble with his lights.

A 30-day driver's license he had obtained in November had expired. In a statement to officers, Blanchard said the left front light of the automobile was not burning and that the right head light was weak.

The driver told officers he saw the approaching light and slowed down about 15 miles an hour. He said the motorcycle hit the left front fender and wheel of the car, blowing out the tire. His story was corroborated by Blanchard's statement.

A coroner's jury returned the verdict of "death from injuries received in automobile-motorcycle accident." No charges will be filed against Nettles, according to Constable Herbert McDonnell, as the accident appeared to be unavoidable and parents of the dead boys did not desire to prosecute.

Adams had resided here with his family for four years. His father is a welder instructor at the Ingalls shipyard. He is survived, in addition to his parents, by a sister, Katherine N., and a brother, Theo A. Adams, Jr. Funeral services were conducted at the chapel of Falls Funeral Home in Pascagoula afternoon and the body was sent to Holt, Fla., the family's former home for burial.

Borries was a native of Biloxi but had lived in Pascagoula for five years where his father operates a grocery store. Funeral services were conducted in Biloxi. He is survived by his parents, a brother, Pfc. Roy Borries, Jr., U. S. Marine Corps, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mallett and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borries of Biloxi.

It will be a handsome bridge of the style of the Watson-Williams Bridge over Lake Ponchartrain. In the construction of the bridge will enter 2,494,370 pounds of reinforcing steel, 58,500 feet of creosoted lumber, 4,500 feet of creosoted piling, 10,797 yards of class D concrete, 70,000 lineal feet of concrete piling, etc., quite a large bill of material. The bridge will be about 17 feet above mean low tide, will have a roadway 20 feet wide with a four-foot sidewalk. It will be lighted and will have electrical equipment to work the draw span.

It is estimated that it will take 330 working days to complete the bridge and have it opened for traffic. It will begin at Howard Avenue on the Blount side and will extend to Porter Avenue on the Ocean Springs side. A curve will be necessitated on the Ocean Springs side on account of too great cost in getting another location in that territory, but this is acceptable to all parties concerned.

MRS. E. B. BLACKWELL.

Mrs. Eugenia B. Blackwell died on Monday morning at her home in Krebs Avenue, after several weeks of illness. The funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon, the service being conducted in the Baptist church, Rev. W. M. Morris officiating, interment in Machpelah cemetery.

Thus another good woman and old respected citizen of this community has gone to her reward. Mrs. Blackwell was nearly 73 years of age, being born in a small place near Selma, Ala., on October 17, 1853. She came to Scranton (now Pascagoula) in 1869, living here with her uncle, Richard R. Apperson, her father having died during the Civil War. Her uncle was one of the first locomotive engineers on the old Mobile and New Orleans railroad, now the L. & N. She moved to Algiers in 1873 and in 1874 was married to Joseph E. Blackwell in Algiers. Mr. Blackwell died in 1888 and Mrs. Blackwell came to Pascagoula in 1889 and has lived here ever since.

Deceased became a member of the Baptist church at the age of 14, and was a consistent member and an active Christian woman all her life. Given to charity and always ready to help anyone in trouble or distress, Mrs. Blackwell was known and beloved by almost every person who ever lived in this community. Church and society were better for her ministrations and her passing is a matter of sincere regret to hundreds of citizens.

Deceased is survived by only one son, Jas. G. Blackwell of this city, and a number of grand children and other relatives, who have the sympathies of the entire community in their bereavement.

The bridal party, consisting of the minister, the bride and groom and the attendants, Mr. John H. McLean and Miss Eloise Clark, were surrounded by the officers and men of the Walcott at attention, and a number of civilian friends of the bride, and as the sweetly

FIRST PRIMARY ON AUGUST 21

If Second Is Necessary Will Be Held Three Weeks Later, September 11.

Recent newspaper dispatches carry the intelligence that Hon. Noel White of Lexington, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, will issue a call for a meeting of the executive committee shortly after the Houston convention, and further states that the purpose of the meeting will be to name dates for the holding of primary elections for the nomination of candidates for Congress, U. S. Senator and Supreme Court and other judges, and specifies that under the code the "first primary shall be held no earlier than the first day of August and not later than the 10th day of August."

The dates quoted have special application to general primary elections, in which state nominees, county and district nominees are chosen. Section 7493, of Hemingways 1927 Code provides that the first primary for the holding congressional and senatorial nominees "shall be held on the third Tuesday of August," and the second primary, if one is necessary "shall be held three weeks later." Sections 7534 and 7535 of the same Code provides that nominees for chancellors, circuit court judges and supreme court judges, to be nominated the same year are to be chosen by the same primaries as that of congressmen.

Hence, it follows, that the first primary of this year will be held on Tuesday, August 21, and a second primary, if one is necessary, will be held on Tuesday, September 11.

Dear Mr. Strickland,

May I ask a favor of you regarding the Blackwell family listed in the "Who married whom, Jasper County, MS, Book 1 A-K."

I have studied this list and also "Legend of Rock Hill" by Edith Faye Sweeney Hickman.

And I am inclosing pages pertaining to the Blackwells from the Hickman book, from the TN Genealogical Magazine "Ansearchin News," Winter 1994 page 166, and page 114 from the "Union County, MS, cemetery records" published by the New Albany, MS, DAR.

For a friend I have Blackwell data which I have charted for your information.

The frequent use of "Nicholas" by Blackwell descendants suggest a relationship which we do not know.

I am a friend from Memphis, TN, days and it would give me great pleasure to help determine the Blackwell line.

Here in Florida I have limited access to MS records though I am familiar with some of the series- as a retired librarian from Memphis.

Any suggestions you can make will be greatly appreciated.

Dear Mams:

I am researching the Blackwell Family. On page 23 of "Who Married whom Jasper Co. Mo." Book 1 is a Bush Blackwell B. 1846 spouse Evan Grantham - Auding. He is cited #7 of Swinton & Nelson Blackwell. The book's source info is family knowledge.

Can you give the address to the family. I am at a stand still. Search my ~~Blackwell~~ my Jacob Blackwell. They had a large family. I want to include their family in my Day book & since all connections in Swinton, Jasper & Smith Counties. It's difficult to find accurate is buried in Woolmarket, Miss. cemetery. Nicholas had a lovely epitaph written on her tomb:

"Remember me when you pass by

As you are now so once was I

As I am now so you must be Prepared to die and follow me"

Blackwell 24

Nicholas was married 2nd to Lucinda Adaline House, daughter of Robert Burton House and Adeline ?, R. B. was the son of Henry House and Elizabeth Burton.

Nicholas and Lucinda married sometime between 1857 and 1860 as they were on the 1860 Harrison County, MS. Census with Little Sarah Azolene age three, in the house of E. R. Blackwell family. No record has been found to know the exact date of marriage. They had seven children the last one born dead and Lucinda died shortly after the birth of the baby.

Nicholas was married 3rd to Mrs. M. V. Calvitt only known as Aunt Jenny. I do not know what her maiden name is as she was a widow when he married her. I do not know how long they lived together. They were still living together in the 1900's in Pearl River Co., MS. They were married 9-6-1879 in Gulfport, MS. No record of death.

Nicholas had several brothers and most of them served in the Civil War. Nicholas served four years and did not receive any major injury. He enlisted a Private and was discharged a Captain and served in Alabama, Georgia and Vicksburg.

4th generation will list Sons and Daughters of Edward Nicholas Blackwell and their descendants.

FROM THE AUTHOR

The primary purpose of this book is to preserve the family records of several generations of Blackwells and Wyres' relatives in Mississippi and many of the Southern States. The Blackwell's migrated to Mississippi from South Carolina through Tennessee. Jacob, Sr., listed in this Genealogy line # 1, brought his family to Jasper County, Mississippi, where most of them remained. Jacob, Sr. is my Great Great Great Grandfather. Jacob B., Jr. was born in South Carolina, and is listed # 2 on the Genealogy line. He had a son in Jasper County, Mississippi listed as the 3rd generation, which is Edward Nicholas Blackwell the father of Granny Wyres.

The Ware, Wyers, Wyres, Wier, Wayer, Weir, Wear, Wires, and Wares name has really given me the run around. Through the years, this is several different ways Granddaddy Wyres family name was spelled.:

1850 & 1860 - Ware

1870 - I failed to find one member of family.

1880 - Wyers and Wayer

1890's - Wyers, Wires & Ware

1900 - Wyres

1900 - Wyres & Wyers

1910 - Wyres

All of these spellings are of our own Joseph Ware Family. I still haven't proved which is the correct spelling, but when I find Joseph's family, I think I will solve the problem. I regret I haven't proven more than I have, but I am almost 100% convinced that Ware or Wier is the correct way to spell the sir name. There will be more proof later. Beginning at the year 1900 and going back to the early 1700 and 1800's. This is a 1900 Census, Pearl River County, Mississippi:

William Pinkney Wyres, age 49 b Aug., 1851, head of household, b in Miss., Father from N.C., Mother from Ms. Lucinda R. Wyres, age 39, b Feb., 1861, Wm. wife, b in Miss., Father & Mother from Miss.

Willie N. Wyres, age 13, b Oct., 1886, d/o Wm. & Lucinda, b in Miss.

Elnora Wyres, age 9, b June, 1891 in Miss, d/o Wm. & Lucinda.

Myra R. Wyres, age 4, b Sept., 1893 in Miss., d/o of Wm. & Lucinda.

Winnie R. Wyres, age 4, b Sept., 1895 in Miss. d/o Wm. & Lucinda. Blackwell 25

Eugene Wyres, age 3, b Jan., 1897 in Miss. s/o Wm. & Lucinda.

Nancy and Poley were born after 1900, so I have them below:

Nancy E. Wyres, age n/r, b Jan. 29, 1901 in Miss. Wm. & Lucinda

Poley A. Wyres, age n/r, b Sept. 24, 1902 in Miss. Wm. & Lucinda.

Ceaman's wife and son are living in the house with father, Thomas Seal. Henry Ceaman Wyers died the year, just before the Census was taken.

Amanda M. Wyers, age 24, b Oct., 1876 in Miss. Ceaman b in Miss.

Homer S. Wyers, age 1 mo., b Sept., 1899 in Miss.

Notice the spelling of the name Wyers, instead of Wier and they are brothers. Also, Homer's name is spelled Seaman and his Father's is spelled Ceaman.

Wyers, Joseph (Confederate Soldier)

Co. H 3rd Inf.

1-Micro. E 568 U 51x

2-Micro. 269 Roll no. 135

Enlisted June, 1862, died July 1862, Vicksburg, MS.

Notice the spelling of Joseph's name here. I have found by word of mouth that Joseph died of a fever soon after enlisted. If I can find out where his family was living when he went to war, then I can probably find where he buried. He had a daughter, Martha, who does not appear with the family since 1860 census.

In the 1870 Census, I have failed to find any of Granddaddy Wyers or Granddaddy Blackwell's family, but I am searching.

Dwelling # 189 - 1880 Census of Harrison County Mississippi (note the spelling of Sir name):

William Wayer, age 24, head of household, Log-chopper Miss., Father b in S.C., Mother b in Miss.

Roberta Wayer, age 20, w/o William, b in Miss. Mother Father b in Miss.

Dwelling #190

John W. Wayer, age 26, farm laborer, head of household in Miss. Father b in S.C., Mother b in Miss.

Martha Wayer, age 20, housewife, she was b in Miss. Father and Mother b in Miss.

Dwelling # 191

Melinda Wayer, age 46, female, head of household. Joseph (deceased), b in Miss., Mother & Father b in Miss. Seaman Wayer, age 15, s/o Melinda & Joseph, laborer in Miss.

Notice Wm. and John had houses near their Mother's Dwelling's # 189, 190, 191 and Henry Ceaman is spelled Seaman in this Census.

1860 Census Harrison County, Mississippi (notice Sir name spelling here):

Blackwell.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Blackwell.

This is an old English family. Nash, in his history of Worcestershire, Vol. 2, page 429, says: "Blackwell was included in King Edgar's charter of Oswaldslawe, A. D. 964, which doth not agree with what was seen in the glass window of the Cloyster at Worcester, that Earl Leofric gave to Blackwell Convent, for he lived 1043. Probably, therefore, Blackwell was originally given by Alhedus about 774, seized by the Danes and then restored to Leofric, Earl of Mercia, about 1034, which will account for its being included by King Edgar in the Church Hundred, as it was sometimes called." The name is also found in the Domesday book, which was compiled by William the Conqueror, 1086-7.

Blackwell Manor was situated in the Hundred of Triddington, Worcestershire, England, its boundaries described by Nash (page 130). It was called Bushey Hall, from the number of bushes or woods by which it was surrounded. It was one of the manors which William the Conqueror gave to Geoffrey de Magnaville, a valiant Norman baron at the time of the conquest of England. After many changes of title it passed to Sir Thomas Hastings, knight, whose widow, Lady Winifred, carried it by marriage to Sir Thomas Harrington, who died it November 26th, 1568, to Andrew Jenour and heirs, who conveyed it, April 28th, 1673, to Robert Blackwell of Bushey, Gent, and his heirs, ancestor of this branch of the American Blackwells, as shown by the coat of arms herein given, brought to this country by the Blackwells of Long Island, as found in the history of Newtown, L. I., New York.

Robert Blackwell and wife, Joan, had three sons, George, Robert and Richard. By his will dated 4th of April, 1580, his Manor house, Bushey Hall, was left to his wife for life, the remainder to his second son, Robert. Other estates were left to his eldest son, George, and third son, Richard. Much dissension was caused by this will and the Manor was finally deeded to the king. On the 21st of May, 1619, King James I, by letters patent, dated at Westminster, reconveyed it with all its appurtenances to the several persons interested, Sir Charles Morrison and Robert Blackwell. Through Sir Charles (whose portion was one-third), so much of the estate descended to his grandson, Algernon, Earl of Essex, who is the present owner (1826).

Through Robert Blackwell, two-thirds of the estate was left to his younger brother, Richard, through whom it finally descended to his great granddaughters, Susan and Anne, daughters of Thomas Blackwell by Susanne, his wife, daughter of Stephen Sedgwick, of Hockney, Co. Middlesex. (History of Hertfordshire, Vol. 2, pages 455-58.)

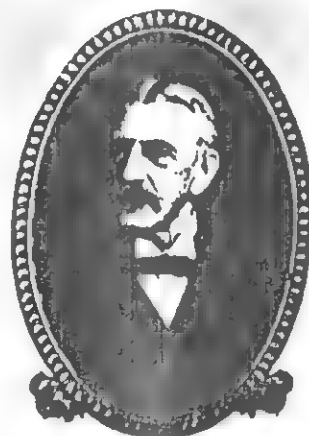

Robert Blackwell, colonial ancestor of the family in New York, appears first in Elizabeth, N. J.; from which place he removed to Newtown, L. I., about 1676, being then a widower with several children. He married at this time Mary Manning, of Manning's Island, in the East River, where he established his residence which thereafter bore his name; it was originally called Verken Island, and was first granted 1651 to Captain Francis Fynn, a Dutch officer. After the conquest of this country by the English, the farm and island were confiscated as property belonging to a subject of Holland, and in 1668 the whole was granted to Captain John Manning, whose sword was broken over his head for surrendering New York to the Dutch in 1673. Of the above island and farm, Mr. Blackwell became the proprietor and they remained in the family until a few years since; he died about 1717. His children, (all by his second marriage except the first two,) were Robert, Ann, Bridget, Thomas, Francis, Walter, Henry, Lydia, married Joseph Hallett, Sarah, married John Elsworth, Susanna, married Thomas Alsop, Jacob and Mary.

Jacob Blackwell, youngest son of Robert, born 4th of August, 1692, succeeded to the paternal estate and occupied the stone house near Astoria, which he erected and died there December 1st, 1744. He married, 11th of May, 1711, Mary, daughter of Capt. William Hallett, founder of the distinguished New York family bearing that name; she died, August 26th, 1743, aged nearly fifty six. Their children were Mary, who married Moses Hallett, Sarah, married John Hallett, Lydia, Rebecca, Robert, Bridget and

Jacob, son of Jacob Blackwell, born November 20th, 1717, married Frances, daughter of Joseph Backett, Esq., who died February 3rd, 1764. He married, secondly, 10th of February 1765, Lydia, daughter of Joseph Hallett. With his brother-in-law, Joseph Hallett, he erected the great mill on Sunset creek. Prior to the French and Indian war, Jacob Blackwell held a captaincy in the Newtown militia and afterwards became a colonel. On the breaking out of the revolution, he stood prominent among the Whigs and his large estate was seized and despoiled by the enemy. He was a member of the Provincial convention, but deeming his presence there of but little importance he returned to Newtown, trusting to the assurance of protection contained in the proclamation of Lord Howe; but the privations and pecuniary losses which he suffered from the enemy, are believed to have hastened his death, which occurred October 23rd, 1780. In his 63rd year. During the revolution Col. Blackwell fled to New Jersey, and at the venerable stone house in Ravenswood, then his residence, may still be seen the mark of the broad arrow branded on the front door by the British, and as such consecrated to the Crown. Col. Blackwell returned under Howe's proclamation but suffered much indignity. The children who survived infancy were Joseph, Robert and James by his first wife and by his second, Jacob, Samuel, Josiah, Lydia and Mary, who died single. Joseph married Mary, daughter of Nathaniel Hazard. Robert was the late Rev. Dr. Robert Blackwell, of Philadelphia, and married Mrs. Bennett; their only child in Mrs. George Willing of that city.

James Blackwell, son of Col. Jacob and Frances Backett Blackwell, married Elizabeth, daughter of James Hallett and wife, Elizabeth Willing of New York; son of Maj. Sam'l Hallett, and wife, Bridget Blackwell; son of William Hallett, Sr. He died November 25, 1831, aged 83. Their children were Eliza H., widow of Lemuel Willis, James of Yonkers, N. Y. Jacob A., died in Florida; Robert, also deceased, Julia, wife of William Ray, Lydia, married Shepherd, Harriet married Dr. Hursy Vaylics, of Astoria, Samuel, married Sarah Moore, and for second wife, Mary Field, and

Sidney Smith Blackwell, of Yonkers, N. Y., married Eliza Agnes Elizabeth Schonnard. Their son, Sidney Smith Blackwell, born at Yonkers, N. Y., September 10th, 1843, married, February 14th, 1872, at Wilson, N. C., Josephine Virginia Blount.

The Blackwell arms, as herein given, are the same as those brought to this country by the first colonist, and used upon his papers.

The Schonnards of New York had their origin in the Von Schonert family, raised to the nobility of Eastland, a city in West Russia on the borders of Prussia. A translation of the German text says "The Von Schonerts came originally of a 'royal family of councillors,' where amongst others Carl Johann Schonert was a lawyer and councillor since December 4th, 1743." He died in 1766 and George and Carl Henry Von Schonert belong to his offspring, the father of the latter, was Henry (Christopher Von Schonert, Court Counsellor and Procurator, and his brother's name was Andreas. George and Carl Henry were matriculated among the Eastland nobility as proprietors of the Manor of Keibsdorf, by virtue of a manifest of Empress Katherine, giving letters of nobility proved January 23rd, 1786.

Frederick Schonnard, the first of the name in America, came to New York before 1765. He was an officer in the famous body guard of Frederick the Great, and a descendant of the noble Von Schonert family. The immediate cause of his leaving home was an affair of the heart. In opposition to the wishes of his family he married the lady of his choice, resigned his commission and with his wife set sail for New York. She died on shipboard. He was possessed of means, the family record showing he brought with him servants and bags of silver coin. He invested largely in lands and houses in Nova Scotia, which became immensely valuable. He built a handsome residence on Cherry street, a fashionable quarter in that day. Later in life he married Miss Fairfield, of Fairfield, Conn. He served in the French war and in reward for his services, on the 25th of January, 1773, he received a grant of land, near Saratoga from the colonial Gov. Tyron, which is still known as Schonnard Manor. The original patent is now in possession of the family. He purchased a beautiful estate of the Rhinelanders, 220 acres in Yonkers, a large part of which is still held by his descendants. For this he paid $20,000; here he and his wife passed the rest of their days in the charming old home on North Broadway, which stood till 1863 in the grounds laid out in the old French style, of flower gardens and carefully kept walks. He died 1792, leaving a son, Frederick, who married Agnes Mary Arcolorius of a Baroy family.

They had eight sons, all of whom died prior to the birth of Edward Frederick. They had five daughters, of whom Mrs. Sidney Blackwell is the only survivor (1886). Before his death the Yonkers estate was bestowed on the only surviving son, Edward, who, in 1838, married Sophia A. Seymour, daughter of Henry Seymour, of Utica, N. Y., and sister of Ex-Gov. Horatio Seymour.

The above facts are found in Scharf's History of West Chester Co., N. Y., Vol. 2, in connection with very beautifully engraved portraits.

The Schonnard lineage extracted from wills runs as follows:

Frederick Schonnard, or Schonnard, married Mary Hartman in New York December 3rd, 1761, died 1792, will dated June 30th, 1792, residence Cherry street, New York City. Children named in will, John, George, Andrew, Peter, Frederick and Elizabeth Schonnard. Their son, Frederick Schonnard, left will dated March 12th, 1839, he married Agnes Mary Arcolorius or Arcolierus, of a Baroy family, one of their children, Eliza Agnes Elizabeth Schonnard, married Sidney Smith Blackwell of Yonkers, N. Y. Their son, Sidney Smith Blackwell, was born in Yonkers, September 10th, 1843, married Josephine Virginia Blount.

Schonnard Arms: Shield divided by a red sea bar, upper part blue; arm in armor holding a pair of gold scales. Lower half of shield gold, charged with an albus, an arithmetical table or accountant.

Crest: Upon a helmet three ostrich plumes, blue, red and gold. (Ref. Ben Adel. der Russin, or the Nobility of Russia. Submacher 3, book 3, page 239.)

I would like to know what Esther's maiden name was & who her parents were ? There is no clue on Elisha Simpson's pension application. I would also like to know Elisha Simpson's first wife's full name.

What was Martha Simpson's maiden name... who were her parents ?

There were quite a few SIMPSON's in Washington Co., AL in the 1800's and early 1900's, and it is difficult to determine how they interrelate. I would love to hear from another SIMPSON researcher who has ancestors who were in Washington Co., AL. I have quite a few additional SIMPSON records from Washington Co., AL.

* Maria Blackwell L. 18 Aug 1798 SC

This is the story of the events that led to the marriage of Micajah C. Blackwell and Margaret Pierce.

When Mississippi became a state in 1817, it opened up new land to be settled and better opportunities. The Blackwells lived in Tennessee, probably in Hickman or Maury County. They had come by way of North Carolina and Georgia. I think Mr. Blackwell's name was John, but his wife was Obedience, better known as Beady or Bedeane. We know they had;

1. Lawrence Blackwell born ca 1795 or 1797 in N.C.
2. Abel Blackwell born ca 1800 in Ga.
3. Sarah Blackwell born ca 1812 in Ga.
4. Suzannah Blackwell born ca 1817 in Ga.

The first Blackwell to this area was Abel, a young man of 21 years. He settled on Greens Creek, which was then in Lawrence County, not too far from the Covington County line.

On Greens Creek lived James Oglesby Sr. and his family. They had come to this area from North Carolina about 1818. His wife's name is unknown, but it may have been Mary, since a Mary Oglesby belonged to Ebenezer Baptist Church in 18 . Their children were;

1. James Oglesby Jr. born ca 1789 in N.C.
2. Cynthia Oglesby born ca 179-.
3. Lewis Oglesby born ca 179-.
4. Elizabeth Oglesby born ca 1800 in S.C.
5. Martha Oglesby born ca 1810 in S.C.
6. Mary Oglesby born ca 181-.

Abel Blackwell married Elizabeth Oglesby on Feb. 13, 1822 in Lawrence Co. Ms. James Oglesby Jr. was bondsman. James Jr. had married Martha Elizabeth Martin, daughter of Francis and Nancy Ann Martin, about 1817 or 1818. The Martins had lived in Amite County, Ms. Nancy had died in 1814 and Francis had moved his family to Lawrence County about 1815 or 1816. James Jr. and Martha Oglesby had a large family , namely;

1. Eveline Oglesby born ca 1818.
2. Charles F. Oglesby born ca 1820.
3. Louisa Oglesby born ca 1822.
4. James Francis Oglesby born ca 1824.
5. Martha Oglesby born Jan. 20, 1825.

I don't know just when Abel's parents moved to this area, but his brother, Lawrence, was still in Tennessee on May 8, 1826, when he married Sarah Davis in Maury County. By 1828, they were living on Greens Creek in Lawrence Co. Ms. They had the following children;

1. Micajah C. Blackwell born ca March 1827.
2. Mary Ann Blackwell born ca 1830 or 31.

Sarah Davis Blackwell must have died after Mary Ann was born as Lawrence married Sarah Sills in 1832. They had;

3. Aaron Blackwell born ca July 1833.
4. Nancy Jane Blackwell born Feb. 1835.
5. Sarah Ann Blackwell born ca 1836.
6. Emiline Blackwell born ca 1838.
7. Catherine Blackwell born ca 1840.
8. Martha Blackwell born ca 1849.

By 1830, Mr. Blackwell had died, and Beady was living in Covington Co. Ms. with her two daughters, Suzannah and Sarah. On December 10, 1833, in Lawrence Co. Ms., Suzannah Blackwell married Seaborn Pierce, son of Joel Pierce and Mary Woods Harris.

The Pierces had moved to the Ms. Territory from Jackson Co., Ga. in 1812. They had lived in Greene, Perry, and Covington Counties before coming to Lawrence County. Their children were;

1. David Pierce born Oct. 12, 1805 in Ga.
2. John Reddick Pierce born Oct. 20, 1807 in Ga.
3. Seaborne Pierce born ca 1813 in Ms.
4. Jeremiah Pierce born ca 1814.
5. Lewis P. Pierce born ca 1815.
6. Cynthia Pierce born ca 1817 to 1820.
7. Ann Pierce born 1820 to 1830.
8. unknown female born 1825 to 1830.

Also living in Lawrence County at this time was Hardy Herrington and his wife, Serena Miller Herrington. Their children were;

1. Andrew Jackson Herrington born Oct. 16, 1817.
2. Nancy Herrington born ca 1818.
3. Hardy Herrington
4. Jesse Herrington
5. Ruthy Herrington

Hardy Herrington, Sr. died in the 30s, and Joel Pierce's wife, Mary, died also. Before Hardy's estate was settled, Joel Pierce had married his widow, Serena, on Feb. 8, 1837, and Joel received a child's part of Hardy's estate. Then on Feb. 22, 1837, Joel's son, Reddick, married Eveline Oglesby, daughter of James Oglesby, Jr. and Martha Elizabeth Martin. Hardy Herrington, Jr. was bondsman for both marriages. Reddick and Eveline's children were;

1. Martha Sarah Pierce born ca 1840.
2. Margaret Pierce born March 1844.
3. Lewis Franklin Pierce born March 9, 1847.
4. Sabert or Seaborne Pierce born ca 1852.
5. Helen Pierce born ca 1854.
6. George Pierce born ca 1858.

Meanwhile, on Nov. 21, 1836, Sarah Blackwell, Beady's daughter, had married David Tanner. They had;

1. Ellinder J. Tanner born ca 1837.
2. Polly Ann Tanner born ca 1842.
3. David Tanner born ca 1849.
4. B. E. (female) Tanner

Sarah Tanner, Seaborne Pierce, and Lawrence Blackwell all belonged to Ebenezer Baptist Church, located just across the line in Covington County. Seaborne joined Oct. 27, 1837. Lawrence had joined church on Dec. 1, 1838. Lawrence and Seaborne were turned out of church on Aug. 2, 1839 for accusing each other of lying, but were later restored. Sarah was a widow by 1850. She joined the church on May 30, 1856. She died in 1875. Seaborne was dismissed by letter on July 2, 1842. Lawrence was dismissed by letter in 1858.

By 1840, Seaborne Pierce had moved his family to Newton County, Ms., where his mother's people, the Harris's had moved. Their children were;

1. Mary Pierce born ca 1835, in Ga.
2. James Pierce born ca 1837, in Ga.
3. Andrew Pierce born ca 1838, in Ga.
4. Bedeanne Pierce born ca 1841, in Ms.
5. Delaney Pierce born ca 1843, in Ms.
6. Francis Pierce born ca 1848, in Ms.
7. Joel Pierce born ca 1850, in Ms.

Sometime after 1844, Abel Blackwell moved his family to Union County, Arkansas, and then after 1851, moved on to Coryell County, Texas. Elizabeth died in the 1860s and Abel in the 70s. Their children were;

1. Lucretia Jane Blackwell born ca 1823.

6. Elizabeth Blackwell born ca 1833.
7. Miranda Blackwell born ca 1834.
8. Caroline Blackwell born ca 1836.
9. Anna Jane Blackwell born ca 1841.
10. Richard Blackwell born ca 1844.

Abel's in laws also moved to Texas after 1850. James Oglesby Jr. died on Dec. 6, 1860 in Jefferson County, Texas, and Martha died in 1865/6. They are buried in the Old Bumstead Cemetery north of Beaumont, Texas.

In 1840, Bedy Blackwell was living with Abel in Lawrence County, Ms. My theory is this; When Abel moved to Arkansas, Bedy went to live with her daughter, Susannah and husband Seaborne Pierce, in Newton County. Living with them at this time was an elderly man, who was probably Joel, Seaborne's father, who was once more widowed. Bedeanne married a Pierce sometime between 1840 and 1850, probably Joel (who had died by 1850). She was listed as head of household in 1850 with Seaborne, Susannah and their children living with her.

Sometime after 1850, Seaborne Pierce and his family also started for Texas where he had a land grant. Seaborne died on the way and they brought his body back to Newton County to be buried. The rest of the family later went on to Texas to claim his land. Bedeanne must have died in the 50s in Newton County, Ms. unless she moved to Texas with Susannah and the children.

On May 30, 1847, Nancy Jane Blackwell, daughter of Lawrence and Sarah Blackwell, married Andrew Jackson Herrington, son of Hardy and Serena Herrington. They lived between New Hebron and Silver Creek. Their children were;;

1. Christina Herington born ca 1848.
2. William Hardy Herrington born May 1850.
3. Nancy Jane Herrington born March 1851.
4. Christopher Columbus Herrington born June 1854.
5. Andrew Jackson Herrington was born March 1856.
6. Merridee Herrington was born April 1857.
7. Sarah F. Herrington born Sept. 1859.
8. Jesse R. Herrington born July 1861.
9. Thomas M. Herrington born ca 1856.
10. Aaron Benjamin Herrington born Jan. 1868.
11. Robert E. Lee Herrington born Dec. 1870.

On Nov. 15, 1849, Mary Ann Blackwell, daughter of Lawrence, married Steven Litevan or Selvine. I could not locate them again.

On Feb. 7, 1850, Micajah Blackwell, Lawrence's son, married Elizabeth Rutherford in Lawrence Co., Ms. They lived near Bunker

Hill.

Blackwell 39

On October 2, 1854, Lawrence Blackwell was granted 80 acres of land in section 32 T7N, R18W. This is located near Carson, Ms. where his old homestead still stands.

On November 22, 1855, Sarah Ann Blackwell, Lawrence's daughter, married Willis Loftin. They lived near where Giles and Gay Laverne Loftin lived. Their children were;

2. Sarah Jane Loftin born ca 1858.
3. Julia Ann Loftin born Oct. 1864.
4. William Turner Loftin born Oct. 1858.

On Jan. 20, 1857, Lawrence's son, Aaron Blackwell married Delance Ward, daughter of Frederick Ward. They moved to the Center Community near the Lincoln County line in Lawrence County. They went to Antioch Church where they are buried. They had;

11. Ernest Pinkney Blackwell born July 25, 1878.
12. Morris Blackwell born Aug. 17, 1881.

Then on March 26, 1857, Emiline Blackwell, Lawrence's daughter married John Ward, a brother to Aaron's wife. They had;

1. John Isham Ward born ca 1858.
2. George W. Ward born ca 1860. He died as a child.

Micajah's wife, Elizabeth died between 1856 and 1858, and he married Margaret Pierce, daughter of Reddick Pierce and Eveline Oglesby, on March 7, 1859, in Marion County, Ms. They lived by Dublin Church near Carson, Ms. Their children were;

Blackwell 40

Then on July 2, 1860, Lawrence Blackwell purchased from the United States 320 more acres in sections 32 and 33. Besides being a farmer, Lawrence was also a gunsmith and carpenter. When the Civil War broke out, Lawrence made and repaired guns for the Confederates. He was caught and hanged from a tree on his own land. I've heard tales that he was not dead when he was taken down and they buried him alive. I hope this is not true. He was buried in what is now the Ward Cemetery located on his land. Emiline's husband, John Ward, died also during the Civil War, and she married 2nd to Andrew Jackson Robbins on May 2, 1865, and had;

3. Warren Robbins born ca 1866.

Sarah Blackwell raised Emiline's 1st two children, Isham and George, after their father died.

Then on Aug. 24, 1865, Catherine Blackwell, daughter of Lawrence and Sarah Blackwell, was married to William Franklinton Robbins in a shotgun wedding. Saying the child she was carrying was not his, he refused to live with her. Sarah also raised this child, who went by Blackwell until she died. He later went by;

1. John William Robbins born May 1866.

In 1880, she also had these grandchildren living with her. I can only surmise they were illegitimate children had by Catherine and Martha Minerva, who never married.

1. Mary A. Blackwell born May 1868.

2. James Blackwell born ca 1880.

One of them also had a female child who died and was buried in the Ward Cemetery.

After the death of Sarah in 1880, Her grandson, Isham Ward bought her place for the taxes totaling $4.71. One day Isham cut the tree down in the front yard that was used to tie the horses. It was hollow and full of gold. Now this made Isham think about a monument Lawrence had built. It had a huge base, a pole in the center with a snake curled around it, and a rooster on top. It had taken six men to move it. When he dismantled it, he found the base filled with gold also. Now, Isham was a drinking man and soon the gold was all gone. Isham married Sarah Ann Robbins, daughter of Willis Robbins and Tracey Stuckey. Their descendants still live on the old place.
